

WAIKOLOA BREEZE

Kū Ha'āheo Waikoloa I Ka Makani Nui! Waikoloa proudly stands, resilient to the winds

Link to the WVA Firewise Community Round-Table Forum Video... See Page 7

BRAINSTORMING

Giving "Forethought" To Tomorrow

Your Board of Directors continue to work on building a structure for defining responsibilities, setting goals and tracking, and managing Waikoloa Village Association's (WVA's) progress toward where we want to be in the next four years. On September 20th, the

In this edition

Page 1	President's Message
Page 2	General Manager
Page 2	Pool Comm. Update
Page 3	WVA Financial Report
Page 4-6	Board Meeting Highlights

[EXCERPT]

THE LEGACY OF HER ALOHA

Submitted by J. Nohea Alexander & R. Likeke Bumanglag

It was a beautiful, typical morning in the Village of Waikoloa.

But this Sunday was a little different in the Village. 'Ohana gathered, friends and neighbors greeted each other, and new friendships formed. Those in attendance included her children - a sister and two brothers, co-workers, and extended family. Their common bond this day, was to honor the legacy of her Aloha.

She was Aunt Mabel "Meipala" Ishii, Waikoloa's First Lady Of Aloha. A moving memorial in Mabel's honor sits at the corner of Meipala Pl. and Kilakila St., on the property of Kim Mufalli and Scott Campbell. A massive volcanic pohaku with a bronze plaque and her picture faces the intersection. The plaque notes her "Spirit of Aloha and contribution to Waikoloa Village."

Around 60 people came together on August 19th to share their memories of Aunt Mabel. Special guest speaker,

